Q.2 Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow : (Unit -II)

We Waited for the asparagus to be cooked. Panic seized me. It was not a question now how much money I should have been left over for the rest of the month, but whether I had enough to pay the bill. It would be mortifying to find myself ten francs short and be obliged to borrow from my guest. I could not bring myself to do that. I knew exactly how much I had and if the bill came to more I made up my mind that I would and put my hand in my pocket, and with a dramatic cry start up say it had been Picked. Of course, it would be awkward if she had not money enough either to pay the bill. Then the only thing would be to leave my watch and say I would come back and pay later.

Question :
